National Level Cultural Event “Kalasangam 2K26”

Important Instructions to Colleges, Institutes and Educational Departments

1. Each college must send two faculty members as Team Managers for the entire duration of the program. It is mandatory that one be male and one be female. One of the team managers must be the Student Development Officer or Assistant Student Development Officer of the college. Team managers must carry their college identity cards.
2. It is compulsory for team managers to stay with their team and remain on the premises with their students for the maximum possible time.
3. For any art form, all musical instruments and other required materials must be brought by the participating team.
4. Registration for each art category must be completed as mentioned in the circular. Late registrations will not be accepted. Team managers should take note of this.
5. Students must not write on walls, damage property, or create any kind of litter at the venue. Team managers must strictly instruct students accordingly. Strict action will be taken in case of violation.
6. Team managers must not meet the judges for any reason. They must remain with the participants at all times and should not permit participants to visit relatives or friends during the event.
7. Participating colleges must perform according to the sequence allotted to them. This will be strictly followed.
8. The decision of the judges shall be final and binding on all.
9. The Organizing Committee of Kalasangam 2K26, Government College of Engineering, Jalgaon, reserves all rights to cancel any art category, modify prizes, or make necessary changes in the program or schedule. In case of any disputes or difficulties, the organizing committee holds complete authority to make changes or cancellations as required.
10. Performances must not include content that insults religion, caste, faith, or eminent personalities, nor should they contain obscene language. If such content is found, the judges and organizing committee have the right to immediately disqualify the performance.
11. In group art categories, teams may consist of boys only, girls only, or mixed teams.
12. A participant may take part in a maximum of three (3) art categories.
13. Professional accompanists are permitted for background music. This must be clearly mentioned in the entry form.

14. Participants must bring all original documents that were uploaded during online registration.

15. Colleges must obtain written permission from the author/artist for the use of original scripts presented at the festival. A certified photocopy of the permission letter must be submitted along with the entry form, and one copy must be carried by the team manager.

16. Since Kalasangam 2K26 is a competition, any objection regarding any team or participant must be submitted within thirty (30) minutes after the competition ends. No objections will be considered thereafter, and the decision cannot be challenged anywhere. Only the team manager is authorized to submit complaints or objections; no other individual will be allowed to do so.

Instructions for Participants:

1. Every student must strictly follow the rules of the Kalasangam Event and the instructions given by the Team Managers. Students must maintain discipline and silence at the accommodation venue, competition premises, and during the actual performances.

2. Every participant must carry their college identity card at all times. Additionally, the Kalasangam Event identity card must be worn permanently in a visible manner.

3. No participant should directly approach the Director, President of the Coordination Committee, Organizing Committee, or Management Committee members for complaints. Any complaint must be submitted only through the Team Manager.

4. Participants must help in maintaining cleanliness on the premises. They should remain conscious that they themselves are staying and participating in the same environment.

5. Strict action will be taken against any student violating the above rules, and such misconduct will affect the overall performance and evaluation of the team.

6. If any participant faces any difficulty, they should contact the Kalasangam 2K26 Organizing Committee.
